

VENDOR INFORMATION

PRESENTED BY BMO

The Farmer at The Green is a weekly farmers market held in a beautiful 1.5 acre public park in the West Loop. Our market mission is to facilitate and support the growth of our local food system and to foster community engagement in Chicago's West Loop. This is the very first year of The Farmer at The Green. So, this is your chance to be a founding vendor and help build something amazing!

HOW TO APPLY

Applications are still open to vend this market season! In order to apply, go to managemymarket.com, create a vendor profile and select The Farmer at The Green. From there you will be prompted to fill out our application!

COST

Application Fee - $20

Vendor Booth Fees

Farmer - $10/day

Processor - $15/day

Artisan - $15/day

Prepared Foods - $20/day

CHECKLIST

Necessities for vending at The Farmer at The Green include:

- Tent
- Table
- Large sign clearly displaying your business name
- Certificate of Insurance
- Required licensing to sell your products

If you have more questions, please email thegreenat320@gmail.com.

